

Week 5: Parents Profession

Q.101: What is the profession of your mother? (what was the profession of your mother, if deceased)

What is (was if deceased) the profession of your mother

One fifth stated their mother's profession is/was a business woman, while two fifth stated 'other', which needs further investigation.

Q.102: What is the profession of your father? (What was the profession of your father, if deceased)

What is (was if deceased) the profession of your father

One fifth mentioned their father's profession is/was a business man while another one fifth of the respondents stated their father is/was a government employee.

Q.103: Do you consider your mother to be economically successful?

Do you consider your mother to be economically successful

While 35% consider their mother to be economically successful, almost half of the respondents wanted to remain neutral.

Q.104: Do you consider your father to be economically successful?

Do you consider your father to be economically successful

Half of the respondents consider their father to be economically successful.

Q.105: Is it likely that you will have the same economic activities as your parents?

Is it likely that you will have the same economic activities as your parents

Half of the respondents are not likely to have the same economic activities as their parents while 35% are.

Q.106: Why do you not expect to have the same work as your parents? (please indicate the most important reason)?

Most important reason why you do not expect to have the same work as your parents

The most selected reasons as to why the respondents do not expect to have the same work as their parents are, 'their work is not paying much', 'their work is not very interesting' and 'my parents want me to have a better life than theirs'.

Q.107: Why do you expect to have the same work as your parents)?

Why do you expect to have the same work as your parents

Around 70% expect to have the same work as their parents because they think it is interesting work. Other reasons include 'this is easiest work for me to get', 'they want me to follow in their footsteps' and 'I only have skills to do the same as them'.

Q.108: Which skills would you say that you have learned from your parents?

The main skills they have learned from their parents are 'caring for children', 'trading/commerce/selling', 'supervision work', 'administrative work', 'cleaning', and 'financial advisor'.

Q.109: Are there good examples in your parents' livelihood that you want to copy? Is there something you have seen your parents do that is useful for your own livelihood? E.g. a way they practice agriculture, a way they do a business, a way they got employment. Please elaborate freely. (You can give a long story if you like)

Are there good examples in your parents' livelihood that you want to copy

The respondents mainly want to follow the way their parents manage their business and their hard work to raise their children.

Q.110: Are there any mistakes that you have seen your parents make from which you have learned something? Please explain about the mistake(s) and what you have learned from it. You can also describe how you are avoiding making the same mistakes.

Are there any mistakes that you have seen your parents make from which you have learned something

Most of the respondents mentioned they have witnessed 'no mistakes so far' from their parents.