

Week 7: Decision making

Q.101: Do you/did you find the following decisions easy or difficult?

The respondents found decisions they had to make regarding ‘what business to choose’, ‘whom to marry’ and ‘whether to migrate to another place’ rather difficult while decisions regarding ‘what type of education to choose’, ‘whether to have a child’ and ‘how many children to have’ were relatively easier for them.

Q.102: Please rate how you make the following decisions

The respondents make almost all decisions on their own. They also consider their parents’ opinion when deciding mainly on ‘whether to get married’ and ‘whether to migrate to another place’.

Q.103: Please rate who makes the following decisions from your parents

Please rate how you make the following decisions

Regarding decisions made by parents, the respondents mentioned that both their mother and father decide together on all issues.

Q.104: What type of issues do you most need advice on?

What type of issues do you most need advice on

The issues they most need advice on are mainly 'business', 'work', 'finance' and 'family life' (in that order).